Eric,

I just finished reading the E-Sylum report of your amazing discovery of Audubon's early engraving.

You never cease to amaze the rest of us who enjoy research. You are an inspiration to us to keep our nose to the grindstone, keep our minds active, and never give up until all stones have been turned over.

Our Sincerest Congratulations, both Harold Levi and I consider it a matter of pride and honor to know you and toil in your shadow doing research.
